MINUTES OF THE CRITICAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMITTEE
MEETING - 2 MAY 1958

1. The Committee had its first meeting. General Truscott began the meeting by thanking the members for the outstanding job that they had done in preparing the report of the Ad Hoc Committee on Communications.

2. It was agreed that future meetings of the CCC would be held on Thursday afternoons at 2:00 P.M.

3. It was agreed that the Chairman would invite Admiral Irvine (JCS) to attend the next meeting and that a representative of Adm. Irvine should participate in the work of the Committee.

4. The Chairman agreed to draft a basic cable of instruction to the field concerning the locations of communication terminals for consideration by the Committee and to draft a statement of the Committee's views on the volume of critical intelligence for discussion with Adm. Irvine.

5. suggested the word "Critic" be used as the indicator for critical intelligence and the Committee agreed that this was a good word.

6. It was agreed that action should be taken to establish the critical intelligence reporting system within existing communications arrangements without a delay.
